

CHAPEL MINISTRIES

Joe Boyatt will chair the Family Bible Hour in January and Sean Fullan will lead the singing. Zihao & Barbie Barton will serve as greeters.

DURING JANUARY

- We will be continuing our series in the study of the wonderful book of Romans, going through chapter 7 and part of chapter 8 this month. This book is the apostle Paul's best laid out and logically explained treatise on the gospel and the wonder of our salvation and standing in Christ Jesus. The sections covered this month will include the inability of the law to save, our freedom from the law, and being free not only from the penalty of sin by Christ's sacrifice but from the power of sin by the indwelling Holy Spirit. Praise God, that one day we will be free from the very presence of sin!
- We will be continuing and concluding (for now) our series on difficult questions and criticisms of the Christian faith that we can face, and how to respond to them with gentleness, and yet firmly and with respect. We began this series with the history of the Bible and why we believe the Bible is the truth, and the true Word of God. Scripture does provide us the framework from which we can address contemporary challenges, even if they may not be specifically mentioned in the Bible. Abe Philip will be taking us through this series at Sunday School during the first two Sundays in January.
- Jon Glock, currently with Believers Stewardship Services, located on the campus of Emmaus Bible College in Dubuque, Iowa will be with us the last weekend in January, from the 25th-27th. We will have meetings on Friday, the 25th at 7:30 pm, two meetings on Saturday the 26th at 5:00 pm and 7:00 pm with dinner at 6:00 pm, and Jon will also share at both Sunday meetings on the 27th. We will miss having Dave Glock this time, but health issues prevent him from traveling long distances.
- Jon will be taking us through a study of the book of Jude. One of only two books of Scripture consisting of only one chapter, Jude addresses the issue of apostasy, when false teachers arise and when the truth of God is attacked (sounds just like what we see today?). Jude contends it is time to fight for and defend the faith, and only believers who are spiritually 'in shape' can do that well. Jude reminds his readers, and the false teachers, of God's past dealings with an unbelieving Israel, disobedient angels and wicked Sodom and Gomorrah. The challenge is great, but as the beautiful benediction at the end of the book reminds us, we have a God who 'is able to keep us from falling and to present us faultless before the presence of His glory with exceeding joy!' Please note the dates and plan to attend.

- At the Men's breakfast on January 5th, we will be continuing our series on 'Wisdom' as presented in the book of Proverbs. This month we will look at the moral failure, especially in the area of sexual sin that can happen without true wisdom. Mike Gaynier will bring the meditation this month.

- Please continue to pray for all those who prepare and teach the Word of God at the chapel.

LOOKING AHEAD

- We will be continuing our series in Romans, going through the latter part of chapter 8, and chapters 9, 10 and 11. The remainder of chapter 8 examines the wonder of God's love for us and the absolute wonder of our salvation and the glory to be revealed in us. Chapters 9 through 11, are a sort of interlude between chapters 8 and 12, and cover many difficult issues, presented in the discussion of God's past, present and future dealings with the nation of Israel.
- Phil Miekley, at Sunday School will continue the series on 'Sister relationships' in Scripture, and the lessons we can draw and apply from them today. Towards the end of the month Cory Moorefield will be taking a couple of Sunday Schools on lessons from the life of Daniel.
- God willing, Ted and Laura Browne and family will be with us on Sunday, March 24th. Ted will be sharing a ministry update and future plans at Sunday School, and sharing from the Word at the Bible Hour.

⁵For those who are according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh, but those who are according to the Spirit, the things of the Spirit. ⁶For the mind set on the flesh is death, but the mind set on the Spirit is life and peace."
